- He is very relatable to students and overall a great guy to be around.
- n/a
- Very helpful, nice, and wants students to succeed
- Very kind and understanding, always looking to help his students. Teaches the material very clearly.
- Amazing communication skills. Always had the student in mind when lecturing.
- Did very well communicating the topics.
- Very friendly and made the class fun to be in.
- He definitely knows the material, very knowledgeable and very nice guy.
- Very chill, understanding, and new what he was teaching
- His personal skills allowed for the class to be fun while still educative.
- Mr. Jewell has been the nicest and most joyous professor I have had at Clemson so far. He makes class interesting and gets everyone involved. He is also very understanding and cares a lot about his students, he makes sure everyone does their best in his class.
- Professor Jewell was very interactive with the class, always getting students involved. He always used time wisely in class and it was consistent. It was also a very scheduled course which I appreciate.
- Prof. Jewell is a very personable instructor, which I definitely saw as a large benefit to the course because students were able to connect with him and, therefore, better connect with the material as a whole. In addition, he is clearly interested in and knowledgeable about economics, which was very helpful to me in trying to learn the topics. Another strength is the organization of the course: there are clearly designated lecture slides for each class period, along with homework sheets and quizzes which are very helpful in understanding the information and preparing for exams.
- The instructor for this course was great. He was well organized and I really loved the format of his class. His expectations were clear and he was always more than willing to help. He was motivating and added incentives that encouraged students to do their best work and rewarded them for doing so. I was eager to come to class each day because of this instructor.
- Professor Jewell has many strengths as a professor. He makes the classroom have a culture of a comfortable environment that makes it so every student can be their self as well as ask any questions when needed. It was comfortable, he also made it easy to know when their should be no talking and having structure. He cares about the well-being of his students inside and outside of the classroom. I have enjoyed learning from him, he delivers information well and makes it clear what to do to prepare for assignments. 10/10 loved every class
- He has structured this class in a great way so that each student is given an opportunity to succeed and learn the information.
- Very kind, organized, and friendly to students
- Professor Jewell was very clear about what our tests and assignments looked like. You can tell he knows a lot about economics and is passionate. He wanted all of his students to succeed and gave them the resources to do so.
- He showed us videos in class that related well to the material.
- Very good at not letting his students fail
- Mr. Jewell was very thorough in letting us know what was going on in the course. He clearly enjoys teaching this course and has good teaching methods by providing us with extra content. He's a very dedicated professor. His powerpoints in lecture were absolutely fantastic.
- It was evident he wanted everyone in the class to do well and their best. He answered all questions and did his best to explain the material if a student did not understand or had a question. He did a good job continually communicating what was going on in the class too.
- The instructor made sure we always knew what to expect on quizzes and exams
- Professor Jewell wanted students to do well and helped them do it. He helped the course make sense.
- Professor Jewell was excellent at communicating what material was going to be on exams and quizzes. He provided great feedback on assignments which helped prepare students for exams. This class was also very organized.
- Professor Jewell did a good job explaining the topics at hand. I think he is best when it comes to drawing and explaining supply and demand graphs.
- He responded very fast, graded exams very fast, and would try to help students as much as he could.
- Always available and asked the class if they understood the material before moving on.
- Provides clear expectations, truly cares that the students understand the material, approachable, accessible outside of class, friendly.
- great teacher!
- Professor Jewell did a really good job explaining the coursework as well as the units that we needed to learn. He did a very good job explaining graphs in particular and how to read them. He also answered all questions and was very nice and polite.
- I think you did very well and appreciate you teaching me !
- Professor Jewell cared about his students' learning and wanted us to succeed. His teaching style is strait forward and focused almost never going off topic.
- Professor Jewell did a great job of developing the deeper meanings of the course and also answering students' questions in detail when needed to.
- Really explaining the material so that everyone in the class understands it.
- I like how Professor Jewell posted the lecture slides on canvas
- He has very detailed powerpoints for every topic, making it better to gain background knowledge on new topics.

19 - Please comment on any teaching methods you found particularly helpful, and suggest alternative methods that you feel would improve the course.

Response Rate 35/41 (85.37%)

- He posts the lecture slides and gives weekly quizzes.
- n/a
- very visual and loud so it is hard to get sidetracked
- He always had the zoom open, he looked to give extra help whenever we needed.
- very clear communication
- How he would use the homework to better understand the material.
- The way he reviewed the quizzes after made it very easy to correct errors.
- Going over the homework was helpful. Going over quizzes and tests was helpful.
- Very interactive with the students.
- His use of slides to teach was helpful but the homework questions we went over in class best prepared me for exams.
- he made us 'present' our answers for group work in front of the class. Even this tiny bit of public speaking practice has helped my communication skills.
- Visuals were helpful, like videos or when he would work on the whiteboard.
- I thought it was very helpful to work on homework sheets during class. Doing group work with classmates was a large benefit to me in learning and understanding the material.
- I found the organization and format of the course specifically helpful. He strictly followed the syllabus which made it easy to keep up in the class. He always clearly explained the expectations for each quiz, exam, and lecture. He provided us with many resources in order for us to succeed. I enjoyed his lectures because he followed the PowerPoint slides, but did not solely read off the information. He was knowledgeable and able to elaborate and answer questions.
- I found it helpful that he had students interact with each other and talk through problems.
- He went over a lot of examples and did not test on questions that were debatable or purposefully tricky.
- I learned a lot from the videos played in class during the lectures. They helped me understand the material more. Along with the home works and weekly quizzes.
- I found the weekly quizzes helpful to let me know if I was understanding the material as I was learning it. They also were good preparation for the exams.
- I think that using the white board more often would help. You explained things much better when using it.
- I found the quizzes helpful
- His powerpoints were the best teaching method. They were thorough and has wonderful examples in them that made them easy to understand. The only way that I believe the course could be improved was if he was more interactive in lecture and made it more exciting.
- The homework sheets were helpful because you could work on them with your table.
- studying the quizzes and hw for the exams
- The use of videos and the optional homeworks helped for the exams.
- I thought it was beneficial having access to the powerpoints and watching the videos from the textbook in class to better understand the material.
- I found the drawing of graphs very helpful. Creating a graphical representation of what we were talking about helped me understand it easily.
- Doing group work was helpful, I think he should do more interactive things
- Going over the homework as class helped prepare me better for exams, and weekly quizzes helped keep me reviewing the material.
- nothing would improve the course
- I would say his overall slide method and his deep explanations of the graphs were all very helpful and helped me learn the material better.
- More hw and practice.
- Posting lectures online was Professor Jewell's best teaching method. He also had time for students to work in groups to do homework which help students better understand the material.
- His lectures were great. Very detailed and thought out while using relevant examples.
- I think the power points used in class were very helpful.
